Step back into early 19th-century history with a visit to Blennerhassett Island, home of Harman and Margaret Blennerhassett—wealthy Irish aristocrats who settled the island in 1798. Our day begins at The Blennerhassett Museum of Regional History, where you can peruse local artifacts and gain great background on Harman and Margaret Blennerhassett before heading to the island. Be sure to browse the museum's gift shop, featuring unique items crafted by regional artisans.

Next, enjoy a scenic sternwheeler cruise aboard the Island Belle as we cross the Ohio River to historic Blennerhassett Island near Parkersburg, West Virginia. Once on the island, take part in a guided tour of the beautifully reconstructed Blennerhassett Mansion, where costumed interpreters bring colonial plantation life to life through engaging stories and period details.

You'll also enjoy a boxed lunch on the island, along with time for a self-guided nature walk and a relaxing horse-drawn wagon ride, all while surrounded by lush plant life, towering trees, and peaceful river views.
